 - (2) Shall be signed by the voting members making requisition;
 - (3) Shall be lodged with the Secretary; and
 - (4) May consist of several documents in a similar form, each signed by one or more of the voting members making the requisition.
63. If the Committee fails to convene a special general meeting to be held within 30 days after that date on which a requisition of voting members for the meeting is lodged with the Secretary, any one or more of the voting members who made the requisition may convene a special general meeting to be held not later than 90 days after that date.
64. A special general meeting convened by a voting member or voting members as referred to in clause 63 shall be convened as near as is practicable in the manner as general meetings are convened by the Committee.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETING

65. Except where the nature of the business proposed to be dealt with at a general meeting requires a special resolution of the Centre, the Secretary shall, at least 14 days before the date fixed for the holding of the general meeting, cause notice to be given to voting members specifying the place, date and time of the meeting and of the nature of the business proposed to be transacted at the meeting. Such notice may be given to- Any voting member either by serving it on them personally or by sending it by post or by courier to the voting member at the voting member's address shown in the register of voting members.
66. Where the nature of the business proposed to be dealt with at a general meeting requires a special resolution of the Centre, the Secretary shall, at least 21 days before the date fixed for the holding of the general meeting, cause notice to be given to voting members specifying the place, date and time of the meeting, the nature of the business proposed to be transacted at the meeting and the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution. Such notice may be given to any voting member either by serving it and them personally or by sending it by post or by courier to the voting member at the voting member's address shown in the register of voting members.
67. No business other than that specified in the notice convening a general meeting shall be transacted at the meeting except, in the case of an annual general meeting, business that may be transacted pursuant to clause 56.
68. A voting member desiring to bring any business before a general meeting may give notice in writing of that business to the Secretary who shall include that business in the next notice calling a general meeting given after receipt of the notice from the voting member.

PROCEDURE AT GENERAL MEETINGS

69. No item of business shall be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum of members entitled under Constitution to vote is present during the time the meeting is considering that item.
70. A quorum for the transaction of the business of a general meeting shall be 7 voting members present in person.
71. If within half an hour after the appointed time for the commencement of a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting if convened upon the requisition of voting members shall be dissolved and in any other case shall stand adjourned to the same day in the following week at the same time and (unless another place is specified at the time of the adjournment by the chairman of the meeting or communicated by written notice to voting members before the day to which the meeting is adjourned) at the same place.
72. If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour after the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, the voting members present (being not less than 5) shall constitute a quorum.

CHAIRMAN OF GENERAL MEETINGS

73. The President of the Committee or, in his/her absence, the Vice-President, shall preside as chairman of each general meeting of the Centre.
74. If the President and the Vice-President are absent from a general meeting or are unwilling to act, the voting members present shall elect one of their numbers to be chairman of the meeting.
75. The chairman of the annual general meeting may call upon a person present at the meeting who is not a voting member, to conduct in whole or in part, the election of members of the Committee. Any such person so called upon shall have no right to vote for candidates for the Committee.

ADJOURNMENT OF GENERAL MEETINGS

76. The chairman at the general meeting at which a quorum is present may, with the consent of the majority of voting members present at the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time, and place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting at which the adjournment took place.
77. Where a general meeting is adjourned for 14 days or more, the Secretary shall give written or oral notice of the adjourned meeting to each voting member of the Centre stating the place, date and time of the meeting and the nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting.

78. Except as provided in clause 76 and 77, notice of an adjournment of a general meeting or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned general meeting is not required to be given.

MAKING OF DECISIONS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

79. A question arising at a general meeting of the Centre shall be determined on a show of hands and, unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried or carried unanimously or carried by a particular majority or lost, or an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Centre, is evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against that resolution.

80. At a general meeting of the Centre, a poll may be demanded by the chairman or by not less than 3 voting members present in person or by proxy at the meeting.

Where a poll is demanded at a general Meeting, the poll shall be taken:-

- (1) Immediately in the case of a poll which relates to the election of the chairman of the meeting or to the question of an adjournment;
- (2) In any other case, in such manner and at such time before the close of the meeting as the chairman directs, and the resolution of the poll on the matter shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting and that matter.

SPECIAL RESOLUTION

82. A resolution of the Centre is a special resolution if:

- (1) it is passed by a majority which comprises not less than three-quarters of such members of the Centre as, being entitled under this Constitution so to do, vote in person or by proxy at an annual general meeting of which not less than 21 days written notice specifying the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution was given in accordance with this Constitution; or
- (2) Where it is made to appear to the Corporate Affairs Commission that it is not possible or practicable for the resolution to be passed in the manner specified in sub-clause (1) - the resolution is passed in a manner specified by the Corporate Affairs Commission.

VOTING RIGHTS OF MEMBERS

83. Upon any questions arising at a general meeting of the Centre a voting member has one vote only.

84. All votes shall be given personally or by proxy but no voting member may hold more than 5 proxies.

85. In the case of an equality of votes on a question at a general meeting, the chairman of the meeting is entitled to exercise a second or casting vote.

86. A voting member is not entitled to vote at any general meeting of the Centre unless all money due and payable by the voting member or proxy to the Centre has been paid, other than the amount of the annual subscription payable in respect of the current financial year.

APPOINTMENT OF PROXIES

87. Each voting member shall be entitled to appoint another voting member as proxy by notice given to the Secretary no later than 24 hours before the time of the meeting in respect of which the proxy is appointed.
